Virginia Health Information Publishes 2021 Industry Report:
Comparing the Performance of Virginia's Healthcare Providers

Richmond, VA – Virginia Health Information (VHI) has published its 2021 Industry Report detailing the efficiency and productivity of hospitals, ambulatory surgical centers and nursing homes licensed in Virginia. Included in the Industry Report is data on charity care, staffing levels, profit margins and more than a dozen other utilization and efficiency indicators across five performance categories: charges, costs, productivity and utilization, financial viability and community support. "The VHI Industry Report continues to be the most looked to source of transparency on the intersection of care delivery and financial outcomes," says Kyle B. Russell, VHI's Chief Executive Officer. Published every year, the report includes information on how often hospitals treat 39 different medical and surgical Service Lines - included are orthopedic, obstetric, transplant, psychiatric, cancer care, open heart surgery and over 30 other categories detailing each hospital's entire book of business.

"On behalf of the EPICS team at VHI, we thank the facilities for all the hard work that was dedicated to submitting the filings on time despite the hardships faced navigating a pandemic on the frontlines. We know this past year has been difficult, and we truly appreciate the patience and efforts to ensure the publication of the Industry Report. It really is a team effort, and we couldn't do it without all of the contacts at the facility level," says Nicole Allen, VHI's Healthcare Accountant.
